REPORT OF BLACK BADGE PROTEST DAY ON 27 March,2017

Friends,

In the first place , AINVSA places on record appreciation and heartfelt thankfulness to all staff members across the country for giving overwhelming response to our call to hold back bladge protest day on 27th March,2017 at NVS headquarter to press for our long pending demands of immediate implementation of 7th Pay Commission Scale in toto, pension, hostel warden,10% special allowance to our non-teaching brethren, nursing allowance, appointment of two staff nurses , and all other demands contained in our previously handed over memorandum to the Hon.Commissioner.

On 27th March,2017 at NVS Hqrs Noida, AINVSA delegates were all set to make a hue and cry over NVS' indifferent attitude in taking up the staff welfare issues in true letter and spirit, right in front of the Headquarter. But the delegates were denied entry by the security guards as they got directions to do so, reportedly. The delegates elbowed, coerced and entered , when they were not allowed to despite polite requests. A bizarre scene was created there: hot words exchanged, manhandling by the securities. The delegates did not panic and hung the banner on the front wall of NVS Headquarter building. They sat there, flaunting the black badges and the genuine demands of the employees on the banner. The AINVSA delegates were only representatives of all victims and needy JNV/NVS employees. They were threatened of dire consequences and messages of strong action from above, aired there. But they did not budge a bit and sat hours in the parch and scorching hot sun. A dozens of more securities were called upon, and deployed from all sides, to check the delegates from entering the block.

The delegates had come to convey the nation wide black badge protests of NVS employees to expedite the implementation of 7 th pay scale to NVS employees, and serious considerations of demands erstwhile memorandum submitted. Nevertheless,after passage of tedious long waiting hours the delegates received a message that they could meet the Joint Commissioner (Admin) on the issue, which was refuted by the delegates as they were adamant upon meeting the Hon. Commissioner exclusively, on the issues mentioned below. Ultimately, at about 3:00 p.m or so the Hon. Commissioner relented and this paved a way for a table-talk, emphasis, hammering of the persistent demands and a few urgent- staff -welfare measures, by the delegates.

The following points were stressed upon vociferously by the delegates to the Hon. Commissioner :

1. Implementation of 7 th pay commission scales, and do away with the ratio 70:30 expenditure funda for autonomous bodies . NVS is non-productive as far as monetary matters is concerned and, that the P.M's decision to exempt NVS and KVS from such conditional sanction. That NVS ought to get 100% funding from the Central exchequer. To which the Hon. Commissioner assured of doing the needful and essential correspondence in this regard ,seeking 10 days time or so. The AINVSA delegates envisaged, explicitly, that NVS employees would agitate more in numbers, in front of NVS headquarter, on the non-implementation of the 7 th pc scales.
2. The AINVSA delegates once again stressed on the immediate appointments of Wardens in JNVs. They cited examples of recent suicidal and accidental death cases on the rise, in alarming proportion. That the staff and the principals have become paranoid, are scared of being manhandled , were under constant phobia of becoming victims of fatal attacks and assault, of going under departmental proceedings, police FIRs, termination and suspensions, due to the occurrence of such suicidal /accidental deaths in the JNV premises . The safety and security of the staff, students and the principal was at stake in such transpired JNVs.

The delegates made it very clear that only a separate post such as a warden to pay attention to the psychological stress of the students in the present scenario, and their regular attendance by the wardens, was the only solution. The subject teachers were not able to pay individual attention to their wards' activities due to his focus on his academic teaching and being engaged in the academic block for different duties and works.

A few baseless reasons were shown to be the cause of deaths in JNVs , which was not true. The Commissioner vouched for for expediting the urgency of the appointments of two wardens., and sought atleast

10 days time to finally state on this issue. The poor infrastructure and the unrepaired amenities created a gloomy atmosphere, pointed out the delegates to the Hon.Commissioner, which could not be ignored. The delegates then urged the Hon.Commissioner that the Principal and the staff should not be unnecessarily harassed or penalised for any unfortunate god-willing incidents of fate.

3. The release of Non-teaching staff transfers and the long-pending Regional Language teachers' transfers queried upon by the AINVSA delegates, to which the Hon.Commissioner stated that he would do his level best to release it in the month of April, and if possible from 1st April the non-teaching transfers would be affected.
4. All other demands of the earlier submitted were touched upon by the delegates and of its serious consideration by the Hon.Commissioner, to which his honour stated that he had even been doing from his part, but would not reveal now as it was confidential till finalised upon.
5. The meeting came to conclusion with a warm handshake and a parting caution that if NVS fails to meet these demands within 15 days, AINVSA would have no option but to again resort to nation wide agitation.

The delegates met Dr.Arun kumar M.P (Lok Sabha) , a close associate of Hon'ble P.M Narendra Modi, and an ardent scholar and educationist visionary who reverberated a soft corner on the plight of Navodaya employees and that he would always be there to assist the delegates, in his officiating capacity.

The AINVSA delegates met Sh.Ram Madhav, the National Gen.Secretary , B.J.P at his residence and apprised him of the NVS system and the step motherly treatment by the Govt. He obliged the delegates by his consent to patronize AINVSA.

AINVSA salutes Sh.Devusingh Chauhan, M.P Kheda,Gujarat: the national patron of AINVSA and Sh.M.K.Singh, the National working president,AINVSA C.E.C ,who paved a way to these successful moves..The delegation comprised of Yogendra Sharma, M.K.Singh, PK Gupta, S.S.Nair, Gajendra Yadav, Rajbala and C.B.Trivedi . The delegates also contacted Sh.Omkateswar Pandey,Chief Editor ANI press agency, a close associate of Mr.M.K.Singh, to highlight the demands in the print media

AINVSA have received pics and reports of 372 JNVs or so on the personal 'whats app' of the AINVSA CEC members . AINVSA thanks all the employees and JNVs who made the Black Badge Protest day successful and expects such cooperation in any, and all future AINVSA activities. AINVSA looks forward to a good will, moral, and an activity-based support and not any monetary assistance from the JNV employees

“LONG LIVE AINVSA”

Thanking you

Yours faithfully
